Certification scheme This AENOR sustainability certificate is granted exclusively to products that have the AENOR N Mark certification in force. For its concession, the manufacturer's commitment to sustainability has been evaluated through the verification of indicators related to social, economic and environmental aspects. It has been verified that the declared sustainability index corresponds to the information analyzed, and is higher than the minimum value required in this certification scheme. AENOR carries out these activities periodically as long as the Certificate has not been annulled, as established in the AENOR Specific Rules 020.19.

This certificate supersedes 020/004046, dated 2022-10-24

First issued on 2022-10-24
